THE THIRD STATE.

The honest editor of the Cincinnati Commercial does not approve of the third and unofficial party to their organization. That one makes enough trouble in the world, he says, without creating another. He is very much in favor of the old party, with the Whiskey Democracy on one side, and the Abolitionists on the other, as heretofore.

P. S. The subject of the invasion of the treaty of July 15, 1851, should be more completely in the hands of the Senate. It is a question of peace and war between the two powers, and to put on the Senate the responsibility of the ratification of the treaty, is to put on the Senate the responsibility of the war that may follow the refusal to ratify. Let the Senate look to it. The House has nothing to do with it. The House has no more to do with it than the Senate has to do with the appointment of Ministers. The House has no more to do with it than it has to do with the appointment of Judges. The House has no more to do with it than it has to do with the appointment of Governors of Territories. The House has nothing to do with it. It is a matter of which the House has no cognizance. It is a matter which the House cannot touch. It is a matter which the House cannot even discuss. It is a matter which the House cannot even vote upon. It is a matter which the House cannot even refer to a committee. It is a matter which the House cannot even lay upon the table. It is a matter which the House cannot even postpone indefinitely. It is a matter which the House cannot even reject. It is a matter which the House cannot even ignore. It is a matter which the House cannot even pass over. It is a matter which the House cannot even do anything with. It is a matter which the House cannot even do nothing with. It is a matter which the House cannot even do anything or nothing with. It is a matter which the House cannot even do anything or nothing with or without. It is a matter which the House cannot even do anything or nothing with or without, or without anything or nothing with or without. It is a matter which the House cannot even do anything or nothing with or without, or without anything or nothing with or without, or without anything or nothing with or without. It is a matter which the House cannot even do anything or nothing with or without, or without anything or nothing with or without, or without anything or nothing with or without, or without anything or nothing with or without. It is a matter which the House cannot even do anything or nothing with or without, or without anything or nothing with or without, or without anything or nothing with or without, or without anything or nothing with or without, or without anything or nothing with or without. Temperance Lecturer.

In reply to a request made by the Friends of Temperance at a late meeting of the West Chicago Temperance Union, a number of gentlemen have held their names with the Editor of this paper, who hold themselves ready to lecture upon the Prohibitory Liquor Law when called upon, or to procure the services of others to fill appointments. Those interested can obtain information by addressing the Editor, at this Office.

A TOUCHFUL PRODIGY.

A young gentleman only 12 years of age, named Arthur C. McKinney, advertises in this morning's paper that he will deliver a lecture at Metropolitan Hall, on next Friday evening, 20th inst., on the subject of "Education."

THE LARGEST TRAIN YET.

A Telegraph dispatch was received here on yesterday evening from Gen. H. Gray, dated at Adrian, Michigan, and saying that "No. Three left that station at 4:30 with thirty-eight cars."

That is the largest passenger train that we ever remember to have heard of. It only shows what an immense tide of travel is flowing to the east this spring.

Excess in the Complaint Book.

By Hobb & Fant.—The wall on the west side of Wells street, between Lake and South Water street, is broken, and is a dangerous condition.

By F. Hathaway.—Illinois street, from the north end of the Fork Market street to Water street, appears to be the place of deposit for old boots and shoes, bones, chips and offal; and the street owing therefrom is already beginning to be offensive and infest the whole neighborhood. The side gutters are full of filthy matter, and the street between is in a very bad condition.

Street Commissioner Rhein will attend to this street, and put it in order and prevent any person who may be detected in throwing filthy substances into it.

In relation to Dearborn Park, the Mayor says: Superintendent Fuller will repair the fence and gates around it, to be put in repair.

SALES OF VESSELS.—By R. R. Haddock to Beidelman & Prinderville, brig Missouri, 266 tons for $6,000.

By R. S. Shepard to D. C. Pierce, brig T. C. Clark, 235 tons for $8,000.

THE HALL IN MOTION.

There was a very large audience, we are glad to learn, at the Temperance meeting, held in the Tabernacle Church on Tuesday evening. Rev. A. J. Joslyn, (late of the agency of the Maine Law Alliance was present, and in an able and powerful address of an hour, most completely routed the objections urged by the shinky men, and left them without a shadow of a shinky law. Mr. Joslyn is one of the most eloquent and effective pulpit orators there is in this Western country. We are glad the State Alliance secured the services of so able a man. Metropolitan Hall has been engaged for Friday Evening, April 27, when Mr. Joslyn will speak again. We would advise the Hall will be filled to overflowing, as the Anti-Prohibitionists will then be reviewed. Those who are acquainted with the speaker will go early and secure seats. The Glee Club will be on hand and added much to the interest of the occasion by their fine music.

Able speakers are provided for these meetings and we are glad to know the house are well filled.

Recorder's Court.

R. S. Wilson, Recorder.—F. A. Hoyne, Clerk.

CHICAGO, Wednesday, April 18, 1855.

Nearly the whole day was consumed in the trial of the case, the people vs. Charles W. Dean; larceny. The prisoner was accused of stealing a horse and a wagon, the property of Mr. McDonald. It was proved that he had taken a horse from McDonald's stable and had sold it. Also that he had represented that he had purchased the horse from Mr. McDonald, although there was no proof that he had paid for it. Also that he had persuaded McDonald to let him take his watch, telling him that he would either sell it for him, or pay him a hundred dollars. The horse has been recovered; but the watch has not been found.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty, and fixed the term of imprisonment at five years.

POLICE COURT.—Justice Milliken.
Wednesday, April 18, 1855.

Christian Giesbrin, drunk; fined $1.00.
John Bergen, drunk, fined $1.00.
Judy Kennedy, drunk, fined $2.00.
John Kennedy, disorderly, fined $3.00.

Good and Cheap Fire Wood.

We direct especial attention this morning to the advertisement of R. K. Clark & Co. Wood Dealers. This firm have on hand a large quantity of excellent fuel, and are prepared to sell it at reduced prices. The character of the firm is an ample guaranty of the manner in which their contracts will be served. They will be sure of receiving good measure—heaped up, shook down and running over."

Orders for wood may be left at McCormick's Reaper Factory, North side, and at William H. Butler's Hardware store, No. 89 Lake Street, or at Joseph Willards' Drug Store, 46 North Clark Street.

METEOROLOGICAL TABLE.

THE GREAT REVOLUTIONARY ROMANCE!

NOW READY!—Published this day

KATE AYLESFORD!

A STORY OF 1776 RETOLD.

By Charles J. Peterson, Author of "Cruising in the Last War."

These stirring days call forth the greatest display of the truest and noblest qualities of the human heart. Love, friendship, and patriotism are never more beautifully developed than in times of war and revolution. Our fathers' struggles for liberty are inseparably connected with the most touching and interesting domestic incidents, and the author has selected for his subject one of the most beautiful and romantic of these.

"Mr. Peterson, in this historical novel, has shouldered up to the mark, and has given us a book that will be read. The time of which he writes is the most interesting period of the Revolution. The battle of Long Island, which commenced with the dawn of day, and ended with the night, was the most severe contest of the whole war. The author has described it with great spirit."—Courier.

"Mr. Peterson has chosen a most interesting period for the basis of his story, and has made the most of it. The battle of Long Island, the retreat of the American army, the occupation of New York by the British, the burning of the city, and the battle of White Plains, are described with great spirit and power."—*Evening Post
